WELLS-STALKER 1938

NAPANEE—A very pretty wedding was solemnized at 1 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 28, at the home of Mrs. James Stalker in Sillsville, when her only daughter, Miss Lois Stalker, for the past few years a member of the civil service staff in Ottawa, became the bride of Manson Wells, son of E. B. Wells, and the late Mrs. Wells of Evesham, Sask.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Roland Stalker, looked lovely in her wedding dress of white silk brocade, with matching veil, and satin slippers trimmed with silver. She carried a lovely bouquet of Briarcliff roses. Miss Vera Burnard of Napanee was bridesmaid and was gowned in green crepe de chine with matching accessories and carried a bouquet of Talisman roses. Reginald Stalker, brother of the bride was groomsmen. The ceremony was solemnized by Rev. George Putnam, United Church minister of Adolphustown.

Mrs. W. R. Sexsmith of Napanee played the wedding music and Miss Busby of Ottawa sang delightfully "O Perfect Love." Following the wedding dinner the happy couple left for the United States and will visit Toronto before proceeding to their western home.

The guests from Napanee were Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Crossman and son Lynn Crossman, Mr. and Mrs. Ward Sexsmith, F. P. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Elliott and three daughters, Reta, Eva and Mary.

The bride formerly resided in Napanee and while here was an active member in the young people's work in Grace Church also the Sunday school and the choir of which she was a member for some time.
